This year we are planning a new way to celebrate Upstanders with a fun-filled evening, gathering together in the digital world, on October 15th with a VIP reception starting at 7pm ET and general admission beginning at 7:30 pm ET, to celebrate our amazing accomplishments, as well as sharing our future plans to continue our mission to end all online and offline bullying, in schools, workplaces and faith communities, with all our dedicated and loyal friends and supporters.

This fun-filled evening will include interesting reflections and funny conversations with cast members Michelle Clunie, Scott Lowell, Robert Gant, Peter Paige, Randy Harrison and Sharon Gless, from the celebrated and life-giving hit show, Queer As Folk-- "a groundbreaking series about gay culture in America" (New York Times) --. So please consider joining us for a delightful evening filled with many laughs and heartfelt discussions that are uplifting and encouraging. Conversations that discuss how the characters of the acclaimed hit series Queer As Folk exemplified courage, kindness, respect and civility, as the cast members share their thoughts on who among them most exemplified an Upstander and when.
