Celebrating Upstanders of the Women's Rights Movement

Instituted by President Jimmy Carter, Women's History Month recognizes the vital roles women have played throughout history.

We honor the history, understanding, and empowerment of women and their impact in their community, and world.

We celebrate the achievements of trailblazers who spoke up against injustice.

We commemorate the sacrifices and risks taken by women.

Join us at the Tyler Clementi Foundation to pay tribute to those Upstanders who persisted to create a more equitable society. Help us create more spaces that are inclusive of all identities and backgrounds.
